divided Shares) shall respectively be registered as such holders and that any new Shares not accepted by the holders of the said present Shares (or equivalent subdivided Shares) within the limits fixed by the Directors for that purpose, shall be disposed of and allotted by the Directors in such manner and at such price as in their direction they may think best in the interest of the Company.

4.—That the new Shares be issued at 33 1/3 per cent. premium and that all amounts received for premium upon new Shares be carried to the credit of the Reserve Fund.

5.—That $16.67 per new Share shall be payable on July 31st, 1883, and $16.66 on October 31st, 1883, both monies being proportionately in any dividend that may be declared for the 12 months ending April 30th, 1884.

6.—That the Memorandum and Articles of Association be modified in accordance with resolution 1 and 2.

44.—The Company shall keep a book to be called the Register of Transfers and therein shall be fairly and distinctly entered the particulars of every Transfer or Transmission of any Share and the book shall be from time to time authenticated by having the seal affixed thereto at an Ordinary Meeting, and the Board may appoint an Agent or Agents at such place or places as they may deem fit to transfer Shares, issue Share Certificates and do all other acts and things necessary for the completion of such Transfer, subject to registration in the Register at the Registered Office.

45.—The Company may decline to register any Transfer of Shares whilst the Shareholder making the same is either alone or jointly with any other person indebted to the Company on any account whatever, or in case the Transfer is in the opinion of the Board not in a position to contribute sufficient business to the Company or is not approved of by the Board or any other persons whatsoever, but the Company shall not be bound to state any reason or reasons for so doing.

52.—Every person having acquired Shares by original subscription, or to whom Shares shall be transferred, and who shall not then be a Shareholder of the Company, and subject to the provisions of these Presents in respect of any other Shares, and every person who, being the husband of any female Shareholder, or the Executor, or Administrator of any deceased Shareholder who shall signify to the Board his desire to become a Shareholder of the Company in respect of the Shares vested in him in such capacity, and shall not at the time of the said Shares becoming vested in him by the means aforesaid, be a Shareholder of the Company and subject as last aforesaid in respect of any other Shares, shall, as to all duties, obligations, claims, and demands, upon, or against him in respect of such Shares, be considered a Shareholder of the Company from the time of the same Shares being so transferred to, or so becoming vested in him as aforesaid, but as to all profits, rights, privileges, benefits and advantages to arise from the same Shares, no such person shall be considered as a Shareholder in respect of the same, until he shall have subscribed these Presents if required so to do.

53.—Every person in whom any Shares shall vest by Transfer or otherwise and who shall be a Shareholder of the Company for all purposes in respect of any other Shares, shall, as to all the Shares so vesting in him as aforesaid be considered as a Shareholder from the date of the Transfer to him, or from the time of leaving proof of his title to such Shares at the Head Office of the Company, or otherwise proving to the satisfaction of the Company.

58.—The first call on the Shares of the Company is payable on the allotment of Shares to Shareholders.

72.—If at any time or times after the 30th day of June, 1883, the Board shall consider that having regard to the amount of business brought to the Company by the Shareholders respectively, or having regard to any other consideration, it would be for the benefit of the Company generally, that the Share or all or any of the Shares held by any Shareholder and acquired by or transferred to any such Shareholder on any day after the 30th day of June, 1883, should be withdrawn from such Shareholder and re-allotted, or otherwise held, then the Board from time to time so often as it shall in its discretion think fit, may cancel all or any of the Shares of the said Shareholder and re-allot the Share or Shares so cancelled to any other person or persons who, upon accepting the same, shall pay to the Company the amount which shall or ought to have been paid up on the Share or Shares so cancelled and the proportion of the Reserve Fund which attached or belonged to the Share so cancelled and such further sum if any by way of premium as the Board in its discretion may require, and the Register of Shareholders shall be altered accordingly.

73.—Shareholder whose Share is so cancelled under the last preceding article, shall, upon delivering to the Company the certificate of such cancelled share, receive from the Company the amount of Capital paid up on the cancelled Share, and also his Share of the Reserve Fund or so much thereof, if any, as may then have been accumulated, after deducting therefrom any monies which may be owing from him to the Company as his rateable contribution to any losses or expenses, or to make up the amount of any losses or expenses which may have been paid out of the Capital or on any other account. He shall not be entitled to any allowance or payment in respect of good-will or of the market value of the Share or Shares, but on the re-allotment of the Share or Shares the Board may in its discretion pay to him the whole or such proportion as they think fit of any premium then received upon such Share or Shares.

74.—In the event of any Shareholder failing to surrender to the Company the Share Certificate in respect of any cancelled share held by him, such Shareholder shall nevertheless cease from and after the date of cancellation to have any further right, title or interest in the Company or the property thereof in respect of such Share which shall thereupon revert to, and vest in the Company.

75.—The Board shall note the unreturned Share Certificate as cancelled in the books of the Company from and after such date and shall be fully empowered to re-allot and re-issue such Share to any applicant, therefore, and to issue a new Share Certificate in lieu of the one so cancelled to the allottee or grantee of such Share.

76.—The Board shall also at any time call an Extraordinary Meeting upon the requisition in writing of Twenty or more Shareholders holding in the aggregate not less than Twenty-four hundred Shares.

91.—Every holder of 10 Shares or less who has been duly registered shall be entitled to one vote; and every holder of more than 10 Shares shall be entitled to one vote in respect of every 10 Shares held by him. And when Shares are held in the name of a Public Company the Secretary, Manager or Agent of such Public Company shall be entitled to vote for such Public Company.

100.—The Board shall consist of not less than Five Directors.

106.—No person shall be eligible to the Office of Director unless he be a holder of 20 Shares at least.

110.—A Director shall vacate his Office:—
1.—If he ceases to be a holder of 20 Shares at least.

118.—The Board without any further power or authority from the Shareholders may do the following things, viz:—

2.—It may invest all or such part as it may deem expedient of the Funds of the Company in or upon English, Indian, Colonial or Foreign Government Stocks, Bonds or Funds, or upon the security of the Bonds, Mortgages or Debentures or in Guaranteed or Preferential Shares or Stock of any Railway or other Companies, or upon Mortgage or Leasehold property in Hongkong or of Real or Leasehold property in the United Kingdom or in any British Colony or in the United States of America or at any Treaty port in China or Japan, or in or upon deposits or loans at interest to Banks established in the United Kingdom or in any British Colony or in the United States of America or in or upon such other and valid security as the Board may in their discretion think fit and may from time to time convert or realise, or reinvest the same or any part thereof as occasion may require.

3.—It may, if it shall consider it expedient or advisable after the time for the payment of the losses of the Company so as to accord with the arrangements made by other Insurance Offices in that respect and generally, the Board shall have the entire management of the business of the Company, but subject to the control of the Shareholders, and to the Rules and Regulations as herein expressed and contained.

6.—It may appoint a certain number of Shareholders to act as a Committee at other places under the directions of the Board.

129.—The Profits shall be applied to the formation and increase of the Reserve Fund and shall be divisible amongst the contributors of business to the Company and amongst the Shareholders in such proportions and manner as the Board with the sanction of the Ordinary yearly Meeting or any Extraordinary Meeting called for the purpose shall from time to time determine. Provided that interest on the paid up Capital at the rate of eight per cent., per annum shall, unless such meeting decide otherwise, form a first charge upon such profits in favor of Shareholders.

129A.—Should the Board at any time or times consider it desirable that there should be an ad interim distribution of profits, it shall cause to be prepared a Report showing the financial position of the Company up to the time when such distribution is proposed to be made and the amount of profits then available for distribution amongst the Shareholders and or Contributors of business and shall submit the same to an Extraordinary Meeting to be called by it for such purpose, and such meeting shall sanction or refuse to sanction the appropriation of the whole or any portion of such sum or sums that may be therein stated by the Board to be so available for distribution.

The Articles of Association as amended in accordance with the foregoing resolutions shall be numbered consecutively from beginning to end.

SHANGHAI.

His Excellency M. Bourée arrived here by the Huacou on the evening of the 6th, and is staying at the Hotel des Colonies.

The Triumph from Hankow, is reported as having just left the Legation. We hear that the tug is going to her assistance. For some little time past the idea of forming a Volunteer Corps in the French Concession has been taken into earnest consideration, and we learn that up to yesterday 60 members had joined the roll.

The Taotai of Shanghai is erecting a large house on the side of the Old Railway Station in Hongkong for the accommodation of Chinese officials of distinction who may occasionally visit the Settlement.

The German gun-boat Wolf arrived at Foochow, Pagoda Anchorage on the 5th instant from Swatow. The Audacious and Cleopatra were at anchor off the Big Beacon at noon to-day (June 7th). The German frigate Storch arrived at Nagasaki from this port on the 30th ultimo.

Large quantities of millet have recently been shipped to Hankow; whether it is for making a new brand of samson, or is being stored as a substitute for rice in case of famine, is not known. It is the first time that large quantities of millet have been imported there.

His Excellency Mons. Tencu, the new French Minister to China, arrived by the Anadyr from Hongkong yesterday afternoon, and is the guest of the French Consul-General. He starts for Peking in a few days. Yesterday afternoon, His Excellency called upon H.E. Li, and was accompanied by the French Consul-General and two interpreters.

By some recent occurrences on the Pratas the suspicion appears to have received confirmation that a gang of professional wreckers are hanging round that locality under the guise of fishermen waiting for opportunities, which unfortunately are only afforded too frequently to exercise their really hard calling. It would appear to be about high time not only to light that dangerous place properly, but also to connect a life-boat station with the lighthouse, provided with a steam launch and a few policemen. Most vessels lost there have been wrecked on their way to or from Hongkong; therefore we hope the Colonials will see their way clear to arrange steps, perhaps in conjunction with China, for the greater security of life and property in the vicinity of the Pratas, by providing an armed lighthouse station.

The Vigilant, H.B.M.A. despatch-boat, left Chinkiang on the 5th inst. in company with the British squadron, in command of Admiral Willems. C.B. Audacious, Pygmae, Cleopatra, and Albatross. She left the squadron on the 6th, and proceeded to Shanghai, and arrived here on the morning of the 7th, for the reception of despatches and mail matter for the fleet, and also to take in coals. The Vigilant left Shanghai to rejoin the Admiral at Chefoo at half past one on the 6th.—Mercury.

THE MANILA LOTTERY IN CHINA.

The following translation of a proclamation from Chen, the well-known Magistrate of the Mixed Court, Shanghai, a copy of which was sent to the Municipal Council, on the above named subject is not without local interest:—

I have received the following despatch from His Excellency Shao, Taotai of Sungking, etc., etc.:

"The Taotai was favoured by a despatch of His Excellency the Superintendent of Trade for the Southern Ports, Tso, in which the following Imperial Edict was quoted:—

"It was reported to the Throne that in the provinces of Hupei, Kiangsi, Chekiang, Kiangsu, etc., a new kind of gambling is practised, viz., the Manila Lottery. It was further reported that unscrupulous people open shops to sell those tickets; that the sub-sale of the same is placed everywhere; and that the people concerned in this trade make much money out of it. The petition then asks for a strict prohibition of these malpractices.

"The Throne being of opinion that these practices are of important influence on the customs and on the minds of people, hereby orders all the Governors-General and all the Governors to instruct the local authorities in order to have the above malpractices strictly forbidden and every offender arrested and severely punished."

A despatch of the same contents I have also received from His Excellency the Governor of Soochow.

I gave instructions to the local authorities, and besides this I communicated with the Spanish and German Consuls. The latter, being Senior Consul at this port, favoured me with the following reply:—

"Lottery tickets not forming an article of legitimate trade, the right to prohibit their sale amongst natives will certainly not be disputed. Chinese offenders living in the Settlement may therefore be brought up before the Mixed Court and punished."

"Regarding foreigners, it will depend on the laws of their various nationalities, whether and under what conditions they may be punished for selling lottery tickets to natives or other foreigners. Spaniards, for instance, would probably be acquitted of any offence in selling tickets of the Manila lottery; while Englishmen, Germans or Americans may be punished for the same offence."

It will therefore rest with you whenever a foreigner has sold lottery tickets to a native to prosecute the former before the Consular Court of the nationality to which he belongs."

His Excellency then directed me to carefully inquire into the matter, to arrest the guilty and not to allow any delay.

After receiving these instructions, I not only commanded my subordinates to make inquiries and to have all offenders arrested and tried accordingly, but also have issued this proclamation to tell you:—

"That I hope that you will take notice of this, and that after this you will all change your business and begin some other. If you dare to try and sell lottery tickets again I will have you both brought before my yamen and will charge you with gambling, and will punish you accordingly to the paragraphs relating to that offence. I will not forgive you. If there is a foreigner concerned I will communicate with his Consul, who will also deal with him according to the law of his country."

Let everybody obey!
A special proclamation.

[FROM A CORRESPONDENT.]

June 6th.
The British squadron under the command of Admiral Willems, which has been lying at this port for several days, left yesterday morning at daylight, it is said for Chefoo. The Admiral and his staff and H.M.'s Consul left at the same time in the Vigilant for Nanking, on a visit to the Viceroy. The visit of the squadron has caused great excitement and has been the source of most extravagant rumours amongst the natives. The Taotai left suddenly, if report may be credited, to avoid receiving the Admiral and to prevent any display of reticence in the native city. The sub-consular officials have been rushing about amongst foreigners to ascertain the reasons for this display of naval power on the part of the British authorities. Telegrams received from Nanking yesterday, stated that the Viceroy had assembled 10,000 troops within the city; but whether the Admiral saw and was duly impressed with this parade of military strength, or who or wherefore such a review was held, we have not yet been informed.

The great event, however, remains to be mentioned, which was an exhibition of the electric light on board the Audacious, which took place on two evenings during the stay of that ship in port, and was carried out in connection with torpedo experiments. Anything more beautiful has never been witnessed by residents, especially when the bright, clear light brought out in full relief every vessel of the fleet, even the white sails, rigging and people on board. The duplex signalling with double arms of light visible six miles distant, afforded tens of thousands of Chinese a sight they had never before seen. It is said that hundreds of them were so frightened that they packed up all their worldly goods and prepared to clear out, as they were under the impression that an attack was intended. Others, however, and admitted from the shore, uttering exclamations of surprise at every turn of the light.

Two Chinese steamers laden with troops passed down on Sunday night, their destination being unknown.—Courier.

[FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.]

June and 1883.
The day before yesterday, it is said, the Grand Council had a stormy meeting about Annam schemes by Tso and Li. You may have Li for a few days longer a guest with you, as long as the Seventh Prince opposes peace, there cannot be finally arranged, although Tso and Li are for peace at any price. Tso now dreads to carry his coffin with him to Annam or Tongking—different to what he boasted while at Hani, whence he sent his famous Memorials about the Livadia Treaty, &c.

Mr. Bourée left Peking yesterday, and may be here to-night or to-morrow; his recall is very much regretted by all. Our Chinese friends feel it very hard that General Foote went direct to Kobe. By so doing he ignores China. It is said Wu Chang-ching is to take back from Korea half of the troops there, which really may mean all, because he is memorialised for more.

It is said that Mr. Wing, Mr. Tongking's Lieutenant, who went to Korea to arrange what Mr. Tongking-along to miserably failed in, has not succeeded. Mr. Tongking-along has been refused permission to work the Anwei Iron and Coal Mines. Chang, Taotai of Wuhu, has received the permission, which means under another name the same company.

The Chu Tan Mines are to be worked in spite of Chang Felun's memorial, which may necessitate Chang's brother losing his fat bullet in the Kaping Mines.—Mercury.
